

The John Meyer and Jeff Young Class of 1968 Memorial Scholarship

The annual award of $500 is for an incoming freshman from Holy Spirit School Indianapolis, or Little Flower School, whose parents, grandparents, siblings or family member has served in the armed services of the United States.

No academic requirement standing will preference the decision process.

An application essay should be centered around:

- The students desire to attend Scecina.
- Naming the connection of a family member who served in the armed services.
- Why the student wishes to attend Scecina.

Application essays for the John Meyer and Jeff Young Class of 1968 Memorial Scholarship must be submitted to Miriam Medina (mmedina@scecina.org) at Scecina Memorial High School by March 16, 2020.
